A House, A Home

By : LORRAINE M. HALLI

Where do human beings live?

Do you have your own home?

What is the difference between a house and a home?

POEM

A house is just full of bricks.

Yard =
Eaves =
Stucco =

What is a house?
It's brick and stone
and wood that's hard.
Some window glass
and perhaps a yard.
It's eaves and chimneys
and tile floors
and stucco and roof
and lots of doors.

selfish =
illy =

What is a home?
It's loving and family
and doing for others.
It's brothers and sisters and fathers and mothers.
It's unselfish acts and kindly sharing and showing your loved ones
you're always caring

NEW WORDS

- ▶ Yard an area outside a building
- ▶ Eaves the edge of the roof
- ▶ Stucco a fine plaster

SUMMARY

In this poem, the author narrates that difference between the house and a home. He describes that a house is made up with full of non-living things such as stone, sand, bricks, cement, glass and wood. It is just a building that people can live. But it does not carry any feeling, emotions and understanding with others. It is just a construction of building.

According to him, home is a feeling. A home is made with the people who live in it, likely fathers, mothers, sisters and brothers called as beautiful family. Home is filled with full of happiness, where people share their feelings with each other and have a lot of love and understanding among the family members.
