"Being different and thinking different makes a person unforgettable."

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

“Perfection is not attainable, but if we chase perfection, we can catch excellence...” Vince Lombardi

KENDRIYA VIDYALAYA VIJAYAPURA is a proud mission driven community providing a world class education, celebrating the fact that each student is different, as a person and as a learner. We believe that powerful learning and teaching occurs under a shared spirit of respect which creates a passionate schooling experience recognized for its warmth, energy and excellence. Here people are valued and can fulfill their potential both as teachers and learners.

While academic excellence is our major thrust, the school is also devoted to prepare the students for life, groom them to face the challenges of tomorrow, and encourage them to be socially relevant. We constantly endeavor to always live up to this ideology and inculcate this into everything we do, with the aim that we will be able to ensure that the children grow to their full potential, while constantly being groomed to pass out as men and women competent to bear responsibility in all walks of life.

We foster a positive spirit and believe in partnership between students, parents, teachers and support staff striving to create a milieu that sustains excellence. Our distinction lies in the pursuit of high academic attainment through support, encouragement, praise and motivation.

As the Principal of KENDRIYA VIDYALAYA VIJAYAPURA, I would like to state that last few months have been amazingly action packed. This e-NEWS LETTER is a mirror which reflects our ‘Karma’ and thought process of the past months. Last year we brought out our 3rd e-NEWS LETTER “अस्मिता” This year too we are bringing out 4th edition of “अस्मिता” which exhibits the diligence and creativity of our teachers and students. I appreciate the hard work and commitment of the editorial board who have strived hard to bring out ‘अस्मिता अंक 4’ in time bound manner and I am confident that the readers will not be disappointed as there is something for everyone to relish and enjoy.

Due to COVID-19, school is running in online mode but our student's spirit for participation shows the collaboration of their thoughts by providing different types of articles for our school e- NEWS LETTER. it's great immense for me to see that mass participation by the school students.

A big hand for all the parents for their continued support. We believe that this is the time to not just deal with the current emergency, but also build foundations of resilience to face such difficult events in the future. Let us consider this formidable challenge as an opportunity to learn and must rise to meet this bravely. We shouldn't let the pandemic pin us down. We must remain positive and keep our hopes alive as I believe that " Nothing is predestined. The obstacles of our past can become the gateways that lead to new beginnings.

I would like to congratulate to all the editorial board members of अस्मिता (e-NEWS LETTER) for bringing this wonderful magazine,

Now Let us commit ourselves to pave the path for a promising generation.

So dear children Surge ahead to victory unfazed by the fear of failure. With blessings and prayers,

With sincere and warm regards.

Blama Devi had a son named Narakasi. But he had the nature of a demon. Narakasi was powerful and he threatened people. He was harming people and the gods. Narakasi heard the Devadas, the king of the Devas, had thousands of divine elephants in his army. Now Narakasi was so greedy that he wanted to get everything. So he attacked Heaven. Devadas was helpless and he lost his power to Narakasi. One day Narakasi found a lady with glittering earrings in Heaven. She was Aditi, the mother of the Devas. He assaulted mother Aditi and grabbed her earrings. Devadas was shocked and he went to Krishna. He told Krishna what had happened and begged him for his help. Krishna called his friend Garuda and went to Narakasi's fortress. With the help of his flying discus, Krishna killed Narakasi. The Devas and Krishna with fairies from Heaven celebrated the day by lighting lamps. The tradition continues even today.

A learned pundit once visited the court of Akbar. He told the king and his courtiers that he had learned many different languages. The pundit could speak languages fluently. It was so fast that no one could find out what mother tongue was. He challenged everybody at the court to come his mother tongue when everyone failed the challenge was taken by Akbar. That night, Akbar went quietly to the pundit's room who he was asleep. He whispered into the pundit's ear and tickled it with a feather. The pundit, half awake, cried out suddenly and shouted words in his mother tongue. Akbar came to the court the next day and told everyone that pundit's mother tongue was Telugu. The pundit was surprised and accepted the truth.

SEVEN WONDERS OF THE WORLD

The Seven Wonders of the Ancient World is the first known list of the most remarkable creations of classical antiquity; it was based on guidebooks popular among Hellenic sightseers and only includes works located around the Mediterranean rim and in Mesopotamia. The number seven was chosen because the Greeks believed it represented perfection and plenty, and because it was the number of the five planets known anciently, plus the sun and moon.

Here we can see and know about all seven wonders of the world.

Great Wall of China

The Great Wall of China is an ancient wall in China. The wall is made of cement, rocks, bricks, and dirt. It was finished in 1878 and it was meant to protect the north of the empire of China from enemy attacks. It is the longest structure humans have ever built.

It is about 21,196 kilometers long, 9.1 meters (30 feet) wide and 15 meters high. The earlier sections on the wall are made of compacted dirt and stone. Later in the Ming Dynasty they used bricks. There are 7,000 watch towers, block houses for soldiers and beacons to send smoke signals.

Nineteen walls have been built that were called the Great Wall of China. The first was built in the 7th century BC. The most famous wall was built between 226–200 BC by the first Emperor of China, Qin Shi Hong (Qin Pronounced as Chin) , during the Qin Dynasty

Chichén Itzá

Chichen Itza is an archaeological site in Yucatan and one of the most visited locations in Mexico. Rich in history and the center of pilgrimage for the ancient Maya civilization for over 1,000 years The term Chichen Itza means ‘the mouth at the well of Itza’. It is believed Itza means ‘water magicians’, deriving from the Mayan Itz for ‘magic’ and á for ‘water’.Believed by archaeologists to have been a powerful economic city around 600 AD, the fall of Chichen Itza is thought to have been approximately 1000 AD.

Petra

The ancient city of Petra, Jordan, is located in a remote valley, nestled among sandstone mountains and cliffs. It was purported to be one of the places where Moses struck a rock and water gushed forth. Later the Nabataeans, an Arab tribe, made it their capital, and during this time it flourished, becoming an important trade center, especially for spices. Noted carvers, the Nabataeans chiseled dwellings, temples, and tombs into the sandstone, which changed color with the shifting sun. In addition, they constructed a water system that allowed for lush gardens and farming. At its height, Petra reportedly had a population of 30,000. The city began to decline, however, as trade routes shifted. A major earthquake in 363 CE caused more difficulty, and after another tremor hit in 551, Petra was gradually abandoned. Although rediscovered in 1912, it was largely ignored by archaeologists until the late 20th century, and many questions remain about the city.

This Incan site near Cuzco, Peru, was “discovered” in 1911 by Hiram Bingham, who believed it was Vilcabamba, a secret Incan stronghold used during the 16th-century rebellion against Spanish rule. Although that claim was later disproved, the purpose of Machu Picchu has confounded scholars. Bingham believed it was home to the “Virgins of the Sun,” women who lived in convents under a vow of chastity. Others think that it was likely a cracked a monument.) What is known is that Machu Picchu is one of the few major pre-Columbian ruins found nearly intact. Despite its relative isolation high in the Andes Mountains, it features agricultural terraces, plazas, residential areas, and temples.

Christ the Redeemer

Christ the Redeemer, a colossal statue of Jesus, stands atop Mount Corcovado in Rio de Janeiro. Its origins date to just after World War I, when some Brazilians feared a “tide of godlessness.” They proposed a statue, which was ultimately designed by Heitor da Silva Costa, Carlos Oswald, and Paul Landowski. Construction began in 1926 and was completed five years later. The resulting monument stands 98 feet (30 meters) tall—not including its base, which is about 26 feet (8 meters) high—and its outstretched arms span 92 feet (28 meters). It is the largest Art Deco sculpture in the world. Christ the Redeemer is made of reinforced concrete and is covered in approximately six million tiles. Somewhat disconcertingly, the statue has often been struck by lightning, and in 2014 the tip of Jesus’s right thumb was damaged during a storm.

Colosseum

The Colosseum in Rome was built in the first century by order of the Emperor Vespasian. A feat of engineering, the amphitheater measures 620 by 513 feet (189 by 156 meters) and features a complex system of vaults. It was capable of holding 50,000 spectators, who watched a variety of events. Perhaps most notable were gladiator fights, though men battling animals was also common. In addition, water was sometimes pumped into the Colosseum for mock naval engagements. However, the belief that Christians were martyred there—namely, by being thrown to lions—is debated. According to some estimates, about 500,000 people died in the Colosseum. Additionally, so many animals were captured and then killed there that certain species reportedly became extinct.

Taj Mahal

This mausoleum complex in Agra, India, is regarded as one of the world's most iconic monuments and is perhaps the finest example of Mughal architecture. It was built by Emperor Shah Jahān (reigned 1628–58) to honor his wife Mumtāz Maḥal (“Chosen One of the Palace”), who died in 1631 giving birth to their 14th child. It took about 22 years and 20,000 workers to construct the complex, which includes an immense garden with a reflecting pool. The mausoleum is made of white marble that features semiprecious stones in geometric and floral patterns. Its majestic central dome is surrounded by four smaller domes. According to some reports, Shah Jahān wished to have his own mausoleum made out of black marble. However, he was deposed by one of his sons before any work began.

ಭಾರತದ ಮಣ್ಣಿನಲ್ಲೇ ಬಾಳಬೇಕು ಮತ್ತೆ ನಾವು

ಅಂದ ನಮ್ಮ ಸಂಸ್ಕೃತಿ ಬಲು ಚೆಂದ ನೋಡು ಬಾಕ್ಸರ್

ಜಗದ ಕೋಟಿ ಜೀವಗಳಿಗೆ ಮನಸೂರೆಗೊಳ್ಳುವ ಪ್ರಕೃತಿ

ಕೇಳಬೇಡಿ ನೋಡ ಬನ್ನಿ

ಭಾರತದ ಮಣ್ಣಿನ ಪಾವಿತ್ರತೆ

ಹೃದಯದಾಕದ ಅಂಗಕದಲ್ಲಿ ಹಾಸು ಹೊಕ್ಕಾರಿದ ಭಾವೈಕ್ಯತೆ!

“ತಾಯಿ”

ಕೋಟಿ ದೇವತೆಗಳ ಏದುರು ತಾಯಿ ದೇವತೆ ಮಿಗಿಲು
ಅವಳಿಗೆ ಯಾರಿಹರು ಸರಿಸಾಟಿ ಯೋಚಿಸು ನೀನು?
ನೋಡಿ ಅವಳೇ ಈ ಮನದ ಗುಡಿಯೊಳಗಿನ ಮೂರ್ತಿ
ಗುರುವಾರಿ ಭೋದಿಸುವಳು ಬಾಳಿನ ನೀತಿ!
ತ್ಯಾಗದ ದೇವತೆಯಾಗಿ ಬದುಕಲ್ಲಿ ಬಂದವಳ
ಮರೆಯದ ಪುಸ್ತಕವಾಗಿ ಮನದಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಂತಿಹಳು
ವರ್ಣಿಸಲು ಪದವಿಲ್ಲ ಅವ್ವ ನಿನ್ನಯ ಕ್ರೀತಿ
ಶಬ್ದಗಳು ಸಾಲದು ಅವಳೇ ಬದುಕಿನ ಜ್ಯೋತಿ
ಮಾತೆ ನಿನ್ನ ಅಕ್ಕರೆಯ ಮಾತುಗಳೇ ಸವಿನೆನಪು
ಕೂಡಿ ಕಳೆದ ದಿನಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಚಿರಸ್ಥಾಯಿ ಎಲ್ಲಿ ಹೊತ್ತು
ಮರೆಯುವುದು ಹೇಗೆ ಚಿನನಿ ಮನದೊಳಗಿದೆ ನಿನ್ನ ಧ್ವನಿ
ನೋವಿದ್ದರೂ ನೆಲೆವಿದ್ದರೂ ನೀನಾದೆ ಕರುಣಾಮಯಿ
ಚಿಂತೆ ಸಂತೆಯ ಬದುಕಲ್ಲಿ ಸಹನಾಮಯಿ ನೀನು
ಮಮತೆ ಮಮಕಾರಗಳೇ ನಿನ್ನ ಗುಣಗಳೇನು
ಕೊಂಡುಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಸಾಧ್ಯವೇ ಮತ್ತೊಮ್ಮೆ ನಿನ್ನನ್ನು
ಕಳೆದು ಹೋದ ಮೇಲೆ ತಾಯಿ ನೆನಪೊಂದೇ ಇನ್ನು!
ಸೋಲು ಗೆಲುವಿನಲ್ಲಿ ತಾಯಿ ಸಮಭಾರಿಯಾಗಿ
ಪ್ರಾರ್ಥಿಸುವಳು ದೇವರಿಗೆ ಒಳಿತನ್ನೇ ಬೇಡಿ
ಸ್ವಾರ್ಥದ ಪದವಿಲ್ಲದ ನಿಸ್ವಾರ್ಥದ ಗುಣದಾಕೆ
ಬದುಕೆಂದರೆ ಮಕ್ಕಳೇ ಎಂದವಳು ಅಕೆ.

Update!

"You need to update yourself " Tommy used to say. Perhaps that's what I have heard him tell me the most. And yes, I get it, I am of a different time. A time with horizons without the stains of manmade structures. Call me a hypocrite but I hate what man did with this world. Don't get me wrong, I love people. Sometimes I wonder I can't help but love them. Maybe I'm too old for this world anyway. My creaking joints, blurring vision and capacity to retain so little information are screaming that and my soul shudder. Soul? Lol. I don't even know if I have one and I'm not made for these real existential questions. The only answers I have ever had were for Tommy. And I knew I found them for him to win him over. As I stand here in this room whose walls testify his rebellious teen. As I bent to pick the action figure off the floor, my knees reminded me of one of the cruel jokes of that time. But yes, I couldn't help but love that kid.

It has been years since he visited this house or me. He doesn't even go by Tommy anymore. Thomas Georgios, the CEO of Vlan automation. I never liked that name, Varghese wouldn't have approved it too. I know because he was a friend, my first real friend and when fortunes helped him climb the social ladder, he didn't leave me behind. Tommy's claim of going back to the Syrian roots of his name would make irony cry. Roots isn't something he had any value for. This house, his father's house and me, his father's friend, his first real friend... Well, he has a knack for forgetting his real roots. For someone who meant to shoot for the stars, perhaps the roots are meant to be severed. Georgios is a gimmick to not to trouble the tongues of his fellow people in the sky. So I think he is a hypocrite too or everyone tries to fit in even the great CEO. But I can't help but love him.

Oh, those flashlights could only mean one thing. Tommy has arrived. His decision to launch his latest product here is strange. As I made my way behind him introducing the doctors, pilots, soldiers and every other possible thing, I was just thinking about the possibility of stealing a few moments of Tommy. His speech on the isolation of the modern world, the loneliness of success and his effort to change it made my skin crawl. But I can't help but love him.

Hours later, as the crowd thinned, I decided to act. A bad decision. Such a fool to expect to be introduced as his first-ever friend. Little Tommy was correct. I needed an update on human relationships. As he explained it to the bewitched crowd about the prototype of his latest product to fight the loneliness of the modern world, I was drowning in whispers about robotics, sensory stimulations and terms beyond my updated vocabulary. And I wondered how I can't help but love him as I was programmed to.
